

Study Guide Leaders' Questions:

1. Name the first thing that comes to mind when you hear the word "missions". (Take 3-4 answers)
2. In your mind, what separates those that do "great things" for God from those that don't?
3. Name some things that keep people from sharing their faith with the lost, no matter the context.
4. Does it really matter if you stay in your boat or comfort zone? Do you know anyone that might benefit from you becoming "uncomfortable"?
5. Have you ever seen God do something in someone's life that left you amazed? What was it?
6. Is there something that you know that God has been leading you to do and you haven't followed through yet? If so, why? (We will talk about what it is later)
7. If you could tell God what you wanted to do with your life, and He would make it His will, what would it be?
